

List of objects from George Brown Collection now held at Pitt Rivers Museum, Oxford, after an exchange with The Bowes Museum in 1924.

This list is based on data from Pitt Rivers Museum website and its 1924 Annual Report.

Object description	Source location	Pitt Rivers Inventory number fishing-net, ?	Trobriand Islands	1924.58.17
sago-stirrer	Kiriwina, Trobriand Islands	1924.58.16
2 engraved lime-gourds	Kiriwina, Trobriand Islands	1924.58.27-28
native maker's string of 25 bamboo combs	New Guinea	1924.58.32.1-25
two-handed glaive	Matty Island	1924.58.15
spear with cassowary's leg-bone at butt and diwarra shell decoration	New Britain	1924.58.9
2 string-work fishing bags used by women	New Britain	1924.58.18-19
3 baskets	New Britain	924.58.22-24
cycas nut mounted on strings which are twisted and then pulled to make the nut spin reciprocally and emit a note	New Britain	1924.58.37
string-work bag	Baining tribe, New Britain	1924.58.20
heavy spear with cassowary bone at butt and decorated with strings of diwarra shell	Nakanai, NE. New Britain	1924.58.7
2 spears barbed with fish-spines	Nakanai, NE. New Britain	1924.58.10-11
bundle of unperforated diwarra shells for use as currency	Nakanai, NE. New Britain	1924.58.33.1
spear with human humerus at butt	said to be New Ireland but ? New Britain	1924.58.8
spear with palm-wood point	New Ireland	1924.58.12
2 clubs	New Ireland	1924.58.13-14

3 dance-masks	N. New Ireland	1924.58.34-36
2 baskets	Shortland Island, Solomon Islands	1924.58.21,25
6 arrows	Solomon Islands	1924.58.1-6
basket	Samoa	1924.58.26
sheet of white calico painted with black designs to suit native taste	Samoa	1924.58.29
2 hair combs	Samoa	1924.58.30-31